What: Firefighters' Pancake Breakfast benefitting the N.C. Firefighters' Burned Children's Fund

When: Saturday, July 21
8:00 a.m.-11:30 a.m.

Where: 7th Street Public Market, presented by Atrium Health
224 E. 7th St., Uptown Charlotte

CHARLOTTE—(July 11, 2018)—The 7th Street Public Market and Charlotte Center City Partners are joining forces with The VUE and Catalyst Saturday, July 21 for the annual Firefighters' Pancake Breakfast to benefit the N.C. Firefighters' Burned Children's Fund. Charlotte firefighters will be cooking pancakes (plain or blueberry) for a suggested donation of $3 for kids and $5 for adults.

Firefighters will be serving pancakes from 8:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. To-go boxes are available. All proceeds from the breakfast go directly to the N.C. Firefighters' Burned Children's Fund, which helps victims of all ages who have been seriously injured in fires.

Beverages and other breakfast items will be on sale inside the Market. Parking is available at the 7th Street Station deck, and parking is validated at the Market for up to 90 minutes. Customers can also use alternative transportation – the 7th Street Public Market is at the 7th street LYNX Light Rail stop and there is a Charlotte B-cycle station just outside.

About 7th Street Public Market

The 7th Street Public Market provides high-quality, fresh and affordable food from local farms and regional purveyors. It is the anchor of a dynamic market district that serves as a community gathering place, celebrates the diverse regional food culture of the Carolinas, supports local and regional farmers and food artisans as well as the regional network of markets, serves as an incubator for food-related businesses and helps mitigate food deserts in surrounding neighborhoods addressing access, health and food education and costs. www.7thStreetPublicMarket.com
